

I am very concerned that Sinclair Broadcasting can make a decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just a few days before the election because of the owner's personal bias in this election. It is my understanding that requests for Sinclair to air another view point in order to be "balanced" has been turned down. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and this does not bode well for the future.

I do not believe Sinclair's use of the public airwaves in this manner serves the public interest. It is my understanding that the role of the FCC is to make certain that media companies serve the public interest in their programming.

I do not believe that the FCC should renew their license if this is the way they will operate. We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. We are counting on the FCC to do the right thing. Thank you.
